WHEREAS upon Monday the 16th day of July current, betwixt ten and eleven in the forenoon, a well-dressed man in black, with short fair hair, about five feet six or seven inches high, and to appearance not exceeding thirty years of age, came to the house of Andrew Cunningham change-keeper and smith in Grangefoot, about a mile north-east of Linlithgow, on the Blackness road, where he left a mare of a dark bay colour, desiring that she should be taken care of until he called for her on his return in the afternoon from Linlithgow, where he said he was going: And whereas the said person hath not as yet made his appearance, nor have any accounts been received of him further than a man of a like description was seen in the town of Linlithgow that day offering a watch to sale: There are therefore intimating, that in case the aforesaid mare is not claimed, and the property legally proved, on or before the first of August next, she will be sold, along with fiddle and furniture, for payment of maintenance and charges.

N. B. The person also left a whip mounted with silver, with the letters J. F. upon it.

THE Magistrates of Jedburgh inform the Public, That, on the 19th July, a YOUNG WOMAN, disordered in her mind, who has been wandering about the neighbourhood of Jedburgh for some weeks past, was taken into custody by their order, that she may be protected till her friends, or those who have any concern in her, enquire after her, which it is expected they will do by the first opportunity after this intimation reaches them.

The forefard young woman says, she is twenty-five years of age, though in appearance younger.

She is of a fair complexion, has blue eyes, and of middle stature.

She speaks the dialect of the north country, from which she says she wandered.

BY ORDER OF THE HONOURABLE

The Commissioners for sick and wounded Sea-

men, and for exchanging Prisoners of War.

THESE are to advertise such Persons as shall be willing to contract for Vessels to carry such Spanish Prisoners as are at Edinburgh and Linlithgow to St Lucar in Spain, and to bring back about 120 British prisoners from thence, are desired to give in tenders, signed and sealed, agreeable to the following conditions, any time betwixt and Saturday the 28th of July instant, at twelve o'clock noon, addressed to George Middleton, Esq; agent, and Mr William Thomson, surgeon, for Prisoners of War at Edinburgh, at Mr Middleton's Office, at John Thomson's, writer, head of Leith Walk, New Town.

PARTICULARS for the information of such persons as may be desirous to let ships for the transportation of prisoners.

To specify in the tenders the precise day on which the ship shall be ready to receive the prisoners, which is to be fitted with platforms for the accommodation of the prisoners, as is done in tenders for impressed men.

Each vessel to be well and sufficiently manned, in the proportion of eight men to one hundred tons.

The ship to be firm, strong, tight, staunch, and substantial, and provided with masts, sails, and all other furniture fit for a voyage to St Lucar; and to have proper gratings to her hatches, and a good boat, a long-boat, and a sufficient number of cables.

The master of the ship, or any other person or persons whomsoever, by his permission, consent, or privity, is not to receive on board her, or carry or convey to any port or place whatsoever, during her continuance in the service, any goods, wares, merchandise, or stores whatsoever, except such as shall be directed to be put on board by the Commissioners, or their agents, for the use and service of his Majesty, and such as are absolutely necessary for the navigating the said vessel.

The master shall in all things well, faithfully, and truly observe and perform all the instructions, orders, and directions, which he shall receive from the Commissioners or their officers or agents, before his entering on the said service, and which shall be sent him by them or any of them, from time to time, during the continuance of the service.

If the master shall lose any time, break his orders, or neglect his duty, and it is made appear to the Commissioners, they shall have free liberty, and be permitted to mulct him, or make such abatement out of the freight and pay of the ship as shall be by them adjudged fit and reasonable.

The prisoners are to be daily victualled in the following manner, viz.

Each British Prisoner

One pound of Bread,

One pound of Beef,

Two quarts of Beer.

Each Spanish Prisoner

One pound and an half of Bread,

Three quarters of a pound of Beef,

Two quarts of Beer.

And the master is therefore to provide a sufficient quantity of each specie for 42 days, for the number of prisoners the ship is to carry; which number is to be computed by the tonnage of the ship, allowing 100 tons for every 80 Spanish prisoners, and one ton to a man for the British prisoners.

The agent to the Commissioners to survey the provisions, and to approve of and certify both the quantity and quality thereof.

The ships boats to be assisting in the landing and embarking of the prisoners; three days to be allowed at Leith after the date of the certificate from the agent to the Commissioners, that the ship is completely fitted, victualled, and manned for the service, and ten days for disembarking them, and embarking British prisoners in Spain, if any of the latter are to be brought back. And if the ship shall be detained longer than the said three days at Leith, and ten days in Spain, (except by wind and weather), the sum of per day demurrage sterling money, to be allowed and paid by the Commissioners, to the said master, his executors, administrators, or assigns, for every day she shall be detained.

If the ships should be seized, sunk, burnt, taken, or otherwise destroyed by the enemy, during her continuance in the service, the Commissioners to pay the full sum the ship and all the furniture shall be valued at when first agreed for, provided it be made appear to the Commissioners that the master, or any of the crew, did neither do nor cause to be done, any matter or thing that did or might cause the ship to be seized, burnt, taken, or otherwise destroyed by the enemy. The ship is therefore to be surveyed and valued in the usual manner, by persons of skill and reputation.

To specify in the tenders the rate per man for the passage, and the rate per day for the victualling of the English and Spanish prisoners respectively; but if no British prisoners are sent back, and any consideration is expected on that account, the precise sum is to be mentioned in the tenders; and the matter is to apply to the Commissary of the Marine of the port where he lands the Spanish prisoners for a certificate, that no British prisoners could be returned for them.

The vessel is to sail under the protection of a flag of truce.

The master or owner to covenant in the penalty of 500 l. sterling to be paid in case of infringing or breaking the agreement.

The money for freight and victualling is to be paid on the ship's return from Spain.

N. B. The ship to be employed on this service must not draw more than 11 feet water, that she may be able to go over the bar of St Lucar; but a ship of that draught of water, capable of bringing back 120 British prisoners, allowing one ton to each, will be preferred.—The number of Spanish prisoners to be sent will be about 95.

On the delivery of the Spanish prisoners in Spain, the master is to complete his provisions for 42 days, for the number of British prisoners he is to bring home, if he should not then have a sufficient quantity of each species on board.

By order of the Commissioners,

G. MIDDLETON, Agent.

HOUSE OF LORDS, Wednesday, July 18.

This day his Majesty came to the House, and being seated on the Throne, the Usher of the Black Rod was sent to the House of Commons, to desire their attendance. The Commons being come, the Speaker took his stand at the bar, and holding in his hand the East-India Company's bill, made the following speech to the King:

"SIR,
"Your Majesty's faithful Commons have, in the course of the present session, granted every supply which your Majesty has asked, in order to enable you to answer all the emergencies of the present crisis of public affairs, and to resist effectually the unprovoked confederacy which has been formed against this country; and although in the raising of those supplies they have done every thing in their power to render them as little burthenome to the people as possible, and have found the resources of this country equal to every demand which has been made upon it; yet, as the burthens which the necessity of the times obliged them to impose were great indeed, however cheerfully imposed, his Majesty's faithful Commons trust, that his Majesty's humanity and wisdom will take care, that the supplies they have so liberally granted, shall be applied only to the purposes for which they have been voted."

"SIR,
"I have the satisfaction to inform you, that during the present session, your faithful Commons have paid particular attention to the support and extension of public credit, and the improvement of the public revenues, in order to be the better prepared to strengthen your Majesty's arms, and enable them to answer the future exigencies of affairs."

"SIR,
"I have in my hand the list of the bills which make up the supply of the current year. It is an act for enabling your Majesty to enlarge the charter of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, and for securing to your Majesty, for public use, the four hundred and two thousand pounds; which bill I most dutifully present from your faithful Commons, who humbly entreat that it may receive your Majesty's Royal approbation."

The Royal assent was then given to the following bills, viz. To the East India new Charter, Bengal Judicature, and Insolvent Debtors bills; bill to amend an error in the Cocoa Nut act; bill to regulate the driving of cattle;—that to provide places of residence for the parochial clergy;—bill for erecting new buildings near the Bank;—bill to prevent the stealing of iron rails, pewter, brass, solder, &c.—Plymouth Dock bill, and several public and private bills.

After which, his Majesty made the following speech to both Houses:

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"ALTHOUGH the business of this session has required a longer attendance than may have been consistent with your private convenience, yet I am persuaded that you look back with satisfaction on the time you have employed in a faithful discharge of your duty to your country, in the present arduous and critical state of public affairs."

"I cannot let you depart into your respective counties, without assuring you of my entire approbation of your conduct, and of my perfect confidence in the loyalty and good affections of this Parliament."

"The zeal and ardour which you have shown for the honour of my Crown; your firm and steady support of a just cause, and the great efforts you have made to enable me to surmount all the difficulties of this extensive and complicated war, must convince the world that the ancient spirit of the British nation is not abated or diminished."

"In the midst of these difficulties, you have formed regulations for the better management and improvement of the revenue; you have given additional strength and stability to public credit; and your deliberations on the affairs of the East-India Company have terminated in such measures as will, I trust, produce great and essential advantages to my kingdoms."

"I have observed, with much satisfaction, that during the course of that important business, your attention was not more anxiously directed to the benefits to be derived from the territorial acquisitions, than to the happiness and comfort of the inhabitants of those remote provinces."

"Whatever may remain to be done for securing those valuable possessions, and for restraining the abuses to which they are peculiarly liable, you will, I doubt not, proceed to provide for at your next meeting, with the same wisdom and temper that have governed your late proceedings and enquiries."

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons,
"MY particular thanks are due to you for the ample provision you have made for the service of the current year. I see with great pleasure that you have had in your power to apply so large a sum to the discharge of the debt of the navy, and that the supplies which you have granted have been raised in a manner the least burthenome to the property and industry of my faithful people."

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"While I lament the continuance of the present troubles, and the extension of the war, I have the conscious satisfaction to reflect, that the constant aim of all my Councils has been to bring back my deluded subjects in America to the happiness and liberty they formerly enjoyed, and to see the tranquillity of Europe restored."

"To defend the dominions, and to maintain the rights of this country, was, on my part, the sole cause, and is the only object of the war. Peace is the earnest wish of my heart; but I have too firm a reliance on the spirit and resources of the nation, and the powerful assistance of my Parliament, and the protection of a just and all-ruling Providence, to accept it upon any other terms or conditions than such as may consist with the honour and dignity of my Crown, and the permanent interest and security of my people."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majesty's command, said,

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"It is his Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the 13th day of September next; to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday, the 13th day of September next."

From the London Papers, July 19.

L O N D O N.

The Jamaica fleet arrived safe this morning at the Nore from Leith Roads: An express came up about one o'clock, which communicated the news upon 'Change.

The Aurora, Captain Gode, which is arrived at Lancaster, from St Kitt's, brings the following intelligence:—That on the 21st of June, the Graft appeared off Tobago with 26 sail of the line, and two fifty gun ships; that on the 2d he landed about 1500 men; and on the 4th Governor Campbell surrendered the island. All the loaded merchantmen which were lying there waiting for convoy, except the Governor Campbell, Captain Martin, and three others, fortunately put to sea and escaped. There were about three hundred hogheads of sugar fell into their hands that were lying on the wharfs. On the 6th, Admirals Rodney and Hood, with 19 sail of the line, appeared to windward of Tobago; and on the 7th of the same month the two fleets were seen in sight of each other. The French were to leeward, standing with all the sail they could set after Rodney, who was determined, the first favourable opportunity, to accept their challenge; so that the public may expect to hear the important decision every hour. The very existence of our West-India Islands depend upon the event of this engagement. English Chron.

The capture of the above island, though no official information has been received concerning it at the Admiralty, is not at all doubted by the mercantile people in the city. In palliation, it is now known, that not a ship, of which they were between twenty and thirty in the harbour, has been captured. They had got their cargoes, and were ready to come away, waiting only for convoy. A Danish schooner gave the first intelligence of the French bending their course that way, who appeared to have been at the heels of the Dane, for they arrived in a few hours after.

When the Aurora left St Kitt's, it was reported that Admiral Rodney had received a reinforcement of three or four ships, and was got to windward of the enemy off Tobago, and hourly expected to come to action.

The report of St Eustatia being re-taken is not true. The greatest apprehensions are entertained in the city that Madras has actually fallen into the possession of Hyder Ally, but we can assure the public, that the Company have received no intelligence of that kind, communicated by any channel on which they could place the smallest dependence.

Never was such a hubbub known as prevailed yesterday in the city, on the news from the East and West Indies. India stock fell eight per cent. and the failure of an old banker on Monday to the tune of 70,000 l. encreased the alarm; a man whose note three days before would have been discounted upon Change for almost any sum.

Letters from New-York, by the packet, informs us, that Brigadier-General Arnold arrived there from Virginia on the 11th of June, with two Provincial regiments, namely the Loyal Americans, and the American Legion, which Lord Cornwallis, after completely providing for every service in the Chesapeake, detached to assist in the Northern operations. Exclusive of these two battalions, the army in New-York, by the returns, amounts to 9000 regulars, British and Hessians, and 6000 militia. It was not known whether the Commander in Chief was going to dislodge the Congress from Philadelphia, or to attack Mr Washington in his camp. But one or other of these movements was daily expected to take place. As to any attack by the French and rebels against New-York, it was hardly thought to be seriously intended; at most it could only be the mere effort of despair, and would succeed accordingly.

The intercepted letters, with which the public are already acquainted, and the private letters that have come from America by the Sandwich packet, which give a minute account of the state of affairs in each of the provinces, join in indicating a prospect of an end to our unhappy contest; and those people who have long been driven from their homes, and have had their properties confiscated by the Congress, because of their loyalty to their King and the Constitution, are now recovering from a state of painful dependence, and are elated with the hopes of returning peace, and the recovery of their property.

If the French are prevented from sending succours to the Congress, and Admiral Digby makes a speedy passage to America, perhaps the young Prince being presented to our American brethren as the bearer of the olive branch, and they invited in terms of amity and good-will to accept of a proffered kindness, with a sincere desire on our part to heal every breach, and to give no more cause of offence, the dreadful wound may at last be closed, and affection flow again in its natural channel: But to effect this, an universal pardon, without reserve, must be offered, and every unequivocal proof of forgiveness and good-will on our part must lead the way. The Americans are more to be pitied than blamed; we have given them great provocation; let us give them every proof of sincere affection, and then it will become mutual, for as individuals we still love one another. May Lord Cornwallis and Washington throw down their arms, and EMBRACE IN PEACE!

The last dispatches that were sent to America contained instructions to General Clinton to endeavour, by every means possible, to bring on an engagement with Washington; and, if he found that an impracticable measure, then to throw such an additional force into the south, as would enable Lord Cornwallis to establish a loyal government in those colonies before the ensuing winter.

The East-India Company have received advices of the safe arrival of the following ships which sailed in June 1780, at the several places of their destination:

EDINBURGH.

[For Mr WALTER WOOD'S Sound List, see first and second columns of next page.]

Extract of a letter from London, July 19.
"From the best authority, we are assured, that the last advices from the East Indies do not bring news to disagreeable and alarming as is generally imagined, but that Madras is besieged, and in some danger, is not doubted. Whatever the news may be, a majority of the Directors of the East India Company think it advisable it should for some time, at least, be kept a profound secret, while others are of opinion that the public at large should be made acquainted with it."

The late engagement between Lord Cornwallis and General Green is said to have been the most bloody one during the whole of the war.

By an officer of distinction we learn, that no less than ninety waggons of slain and wounded men were conveyed from the field of action after the dreadful contest.

"A report has been pretty brief to-day, though we do not know on what foundation, that Mons. de la Motte is soliciting his pardon, and likely to obtain it, on condition of his making some very important discoveries of connections here that may affect the lives of some very public characters."

"The report of Sir George Rodney being blocked up at Barbadoes, must be a mistake, as there is no harbour at that island to accommodate men of war. The King's fleets always lie in the open road opposite Bridge-town."

"Another attempt is to be made against the port of Flushing, before the expiration of the summer; but it will be undertaken by smaller ships than those that went with Lord Mulgrave; as the large draught of water of the Courageux, Alexander, and Bellisle men of war, that went on that expedition, are said to have rendered it abortive."

"By a letter from St Kitt's, dated the 14th of last month, there is advice that the island of Tobago surrendered to the French on the 4th inst. The same letter also adds, that Sir George Rodney was then at Barbadoes with one-and-twenty sail of the line, not choosing to offer Count de Graffe battle, who had four-and-twenty sail of the line, and in good condition."

"No official accounts of the taking of Tobago is arrived, but the news is generally credited."

"Lord Macartney is gone to Madras, under very singular circumstances indeed! Either his Lordship will find the enemy repulsed on his arrival there, or have his Governorship superseded till a general pacification."

Extract of a letter to a Merchant in London, received by the Aurora, arrived at Lancaster, from St Lucia and St Christopher's.

St Lucia, June 10. 1781.

"We dare say you have heard, long before this can reach you, of the attempt made by the French upon this island, and of their retiring without effecting any thing."

"An expedition was then thought of against Tobago, which was fitted out from St Vincent, consisting of the Pluto of 74, the Experiment of 50 guns, two frigates, and a cutter, with some small craft; and the Eagle sloop of war from Grenada, with troops on board, meant to join those from St Vincent. Those ships carried in all, it is supposed, about 2000 troops, under the command of Mons. Blanchelande, late Governor of St Vincent: They sailed from St Vincent 16th May, and appeared off Tobago on Tuesday evening, the 22d, when an alarm was fired. The next day (Wednesday) they came down the south side of the island, and stood for Scarborough Bay, but were baffled: They then bore away for Sandy Point. A fast sailing brig was immediately dispatched to inform Admiral Rodney. The brig arrived at Barbadoes on Saturday the 26th: Admiral Rodney next day sent off Admiral Drake, with six ships of the line and three frigates, having on board about 800 troops for the relief of the island; but when he came near Tobago, he saw the whole French fleet, consisting of 24 sail of the line; he then hauled his wind, and stood back for Barbadoes, where he arrived on Saturday the 2d of June. Next day, being the 3d of June, Ad. Rodney sailed for Tobago, with a whole fleet, consisting of 20 sail of the line, determined, as he said, to engage the French fleet: He sent a cutter ahead, to go into one of the bays, and enquire into the state of the island: The cutter returned with the account of the island having surrendered the day before. Admiral Rodney was then in sight of the French fleet, which stood out to give him battle; dispatched the Triton and Amazon frigates, with troops to reinforce this island (St Lucia) by which vessels we have received these accounts: He then hauled his wind, and it is supposed, stood for Barbadoes. The whole fleet was with him except the Panther, which was lying at Gros Islette. We are very anxious to know if the island has got any capitulation, and how the inhabitants are treated: It is generally imagined, that they have surrendered at discretion."

"P. S. It is said, that the French troops landed at Great Gull Bay, on Thursday the 24th of May, and that the island did not surrender until Monday the 4th of June." On Friday last, a Head Court was held in the Canongate, the Lord Provost and Magistrates, when above eight hundred pounds of arrears due by fevers from the Good Town are collected. A similar Court has not been held there since September 1744.

This morning, Leith Races began, when the City of Edinburgh's plate of 50 l. was run for over the Sands, and won by James Thomson of Lark-hall's bay mare Jessie, 1 1 William Ward's bay mare Landlady, 2 2 Sir Archibald Hope's bay mare Monkey, dr. Thomas Mitchellson's brown horse Harrow, dist. Robert Burn's bay mare Bonnylaffs, dist. James Mitchell's black mare Tugimzie, dist. Letters from Abo, the capital of Finland, mention, that a dreadful fire broke out in the King's stores, which consumed thirty other buildings, and spreading to the Bishop's palace, that noble remnant of Gothic magnificence was on fire in the post came away. This accident is attributed to the selfishness of a servant, who is supposed to have brought a red tobacco pipe amongst the tar and cordage, with which magazine was filled to the amount of 350,000 six dollars. The whole damage, including the episcopal house, is computed to be less than 1,000,000 of Swedish crowns. Saturday afternoon failed to the Roads, the Lively privateer London, commanded by Captain Mitchell, from whence it is to proceed on another cruise."

Extract of a letter from Waterford, July 13.

Last Sunday there was the greatest blast that has been remembered by the oldest man now living. The fruit and oaks in general have been so burned, that most of the trees that were on them the day before quite green and in bloom, were so dry that they might be rubbed to powder, the bark of the trees turned to a blackish colour. The corn, potatoes, flax, hemp, and vegetables have suffered, though not so much as might have been expected from such a violent explosion as must have happened, which has left behind every shade of trees, a very disagreeable, sulphurous smell, which shews it proceeded from some noxious vapours in the air. The wind was at S. W. and blew so hard that it threw most of the apples and other fruit from the trees."

We are much obliged to TRAVELLER for his favour, which may rest assured we shall take the first opportunity in our power of laying before the public."

TO be SOLD by public roup and sale, within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Thursday the 26th of July 1781, between the hours of five and six afternoon.

The Lands and Estate of LATHOCKER, comprehending the Mill and Mill-lands of Lathocker, the Lands of Easter Morton, Hilseden, and Constable-Crook, with the Superiority of the Lands of Wester Morton, all lying contiguous, in the parish of Cameron, regality of St. Andrews, and shire of Fife. The estate consists of about 850 acres, mostly arable, and the greatest part of it is let to sufficient tenants; so that the yearly rent of the whole, after putting a moderate value upon the Mains out of lease, and converting the victual, kains and carriages, at the usual rates, is about 290 l. Sterling, free of all deductions, and without including the rent of a lime-kiln set for this year, or the produce of the coal.

The whole lands are capable of great improvement, as there are lime and coal upon them. The coal has been wrought for more than a year past, and at present has a very favourable appearance. #### By Adjournment.

II. The Lands and Estate of CAPENOCH, lying in the parish of Keir and shire aforesaid.

The Barony of Closeburn consists of 9360 acres, or thereby; and the free-rent, after deduction of all public burdens, is about 1740 l. Sterling, exclusive of the lime-quarries and salmon-fishing. There are Woods upon this estate to the extent of 270 acres, or thereby, whereof about 180 is mostly oak, one-half twenty years old, the other lately cut, about fifty is fir and other timber near and round the mansion-house, 50 years old; and about forty is a thriving plantation of young firs on the farms of Campel and Lakehead.

The farm of Closeburn Mains is completely inclosed and subdivided, and some of the parks were, a few years ago, laid down to grass, and are in great heart; and a considerable part of the remaining estate is inclosed and parcelled out into small farms, and provided with neat farm-houses and offices, lately built.

Near the middle of this Barony there is a lime-work, in a most flourishing condition, which, besides being a noble fund for improving the estate, has, for a number of years past, yielded several hundred pounds of clear annual profit.

The estate has right of Salmon-fishing on the river Nith, which bounds it on the south. It has also great plenty of mofs; and the whole is well sheltered and watered.

It is situated about ten measured miles from the market-town and thirteen from the port of Dumfries, where there is a constant demand for grain, both for home consumption and export; also a weekly market for cattle of every kind. It is about the same distance from Sanquhar, from which coal can be got at a reasonable rate, and only two miles from the village of Thornhill, where there is a quarterly fair, and a good market for yarn, and all sorts of coarse cloths, the manufacture of the country.

The great roads from England and Dumfries, to Glasgow and Ayr, by Thornhill and Sanquhar, and to Edinburgh, by the Lead-hills, pass through this estate, for upwards of three miles.

These advantages, in point of situation and intercourse, afford the tenants an opportunity of getting the very best prices for the produce of their farms.

The barony of Closeburn stands rated in the cess-books at 4350 marks Scots, whereof about 3000 marks holds blench of the Crown, and the remainder of subjects for payment of small feu-duties. The proprietor has right to the tithes.

The estate of Capenoch holds of a subject, and is pleasantly situated on the banks of the waters of Shinnel and Scarr. It contains 900 acres or thereby, including about 56 acres of wood twenty years old. Part of these lands are at present in the proprietor's own hand, but the free rent of the whole, when last let, was 231 l. 3 s. 6 d. Sterling. The arable part of this estate has almost all been limed within these three years, and the pasture ground is reckoned one of the best sheep walks in Nithsdale. The lands of Byreholm, part of Capenoch, has lately been inclosed and divided into small farms, and good houses built on them.

William Campbell writer to the signet will show the title-deeds, rentals, current leases, plans of the estate, and conditions of sale; and copies of the rent-rolls will be seen in the hands of Mr. William Macdonald, at Dumfries; the factor on the estate, who will also show the lands.

For further particulars, apply to Alexander Farquharson accountant in Edinburgh, who has power to sell by private bargain, and will be ready to treat and allow a reasonable time to pay the price.

By Adjournment, and Upset Price fixed.

About 25 acres are planted in this manner with oak, ash, beech, and elm, which, with the hedges, are all in the most healthy and thriving condition, from five to twenty-five years old. The farm-houses are in good repair, being all lately built.

The estate lies on a declivity, facing south and south-east, along the banks of the river Nith, which is navigable for a good way above it. It has within itself an inexhaustible fund of manure called Sea Sleeth, which, from experience, has been found equal, if not superior to any other for raising all kinds of corn and grass.

Near the centre of the estate is the Mansion-house, Garden, and Orchard, contiguous, pleasantly situated. The orchard stored with the best fruit-trees, standards as well as espalliers, all in healthy and thriving condition. Near the house, there is a complete court of offices consisting of barns, granary, stables, byres, sheds and straw, hog and poultry yards, and other conveniences fit for the accommodation of a gentleman's family.

The rent of the estate previous to Whitunday last was about 677 l. Owing to some of the farms being set from that term for one year, or short endurances, and under restrictions as to tillage, the rent from Whitunday last is only about 308 l.

The lands hold of subject-superior, for payment of 3 l. 6 s. 8 d. of feu-duty, except a small pendicle which holds of the Crown.

The valuation is 615 l. Scots.—The landlord is bound to pay the whole public burdens, which are the above-mentioned feu-duty of 3 l. 6 s. 8 d. the cess, with 2 l. 8 s. 10 d. of stipend, and 1 l. 3 s. 0 d. of school salary.—The tithes were valued in 1755, and the heritor has a tack thereof from the Crown, current till Lammias 1789.

William Campbell writer to the signet will show the title-deeds, rental, current leases, and conditions of sale. Copies of the conditions of sale, and inventory of writs, will be seen in the hands of Thomas Goldie writer in Dumfries. And those who wish for further information may apply to them, or Mr. Ludovick Grant, accountant in Edinburgh.
